

August A.P. Beam

August (Gus) A.P. Beam has been on the civil litigation team at Citron & Citron since 2016. Gus demonstrated to the firm that he was a fast learner and it was not long before he was in the thick of litigation under the supervision of more experienced attorneys. He has become a valued and welcome asset to the firm in many facets of our practice, from the initial challenging of pleadings, through all aspects of discovery and preparation for trial.

In law school he received certifications for his concentrations of study in the areas of business and taxation. He excelled in his role with the student bankruptcy clinic where he ultimately became the student director of the program overseeing his fellow students and their case loads.

As an undergraduate, he majored in Legal Studies and minored in History.
