

Jacqueline L. Shulman

Jacqueline L. Shulman has been with Citron & Citron since 2011. Before joining the firm, she specialized in insurance coverage and complex litigation. She has extensive experience handling first party, third party and professional liability coverage matters in a variety of contexts, including homeowners and commercial first party claims, and third party claims involving property damage, personal injury and errors and omissions. She has represented insurance companies and the California Insurance Guarantee Association (“CIGA”) in a number of coverage actions. In addition, she has handled a number of appeals involving insurance issues. In her more than 30 years of practice, she has also handled numerous personal injury cases for both plaintiffs and defendants. Jackie has written and argued many dispositive motions and has participated in bench and jury trials.

Jackie is a skilled negotiator and she takes pride in being a well-rounded attorney who focuses on details. She is a tireless advocate who delves in depth into the facts of her cases to reveal her opponents’ factual and legal strengths and weaknesses. She studied Pre-Med as an undergraduate and has been a California licensed Clinical Laboratory Scientist since 1977. She usually finds something exciting and unanticipated when reviewing medical records. Jackie excels at witness preparation as well as taking and defending depositions.
