

Philip Treacy

Philip Treacy is a trial attorney and litigator with over 40 years of experience handling a variety of cases involving complex legal issues. He also spent a period as AVP E&O Claims for a major insurance company in its corporate offices in Manhattan. After closing his own firm, Phil came out of retirement to join Citron & Citron in 2017. He was a good fit for the firm's expanding trial practice in State and Federal court and he had the benefit of a long-time friendship with Joel, Tom and Jackie and a familiarity of the ethics and culture of the firm. At his own firm Phil's clients included insurance companies, public entities, not for profit corporations, professional occupations, real estate developers, contractors, property owners and private individuals. He continues to service the needs of similar clients at Citron & Citron and he is a valued addition to the firm.

Over his career Phil has been lead counsel and tried more than 50 jury trials and many court trials. He also takes pride in his negotiating ability in mediations and settlement conferences. His areas of practice have included all areas of tort liability including wrongful death/survivor claims, professional liability, toxic torts, products liability, elder abuse, child abuse/foster care, construction defects, premises liability, tenant rights and habitability claims, business litigation and all areas of insurance defense.

Education:

- Texas State University, B.A. (1974)
- St. Mary's University School of Law – San Antonio, Texas (1977)

Admissions:

- California State Bar (1998)
- State Bar of Texas (1977)
- District of Columbia Bar (1987)
- United States District Court for the Central District of California
- United States District Court for the Western, Northern and Southern Districts of Texas

Representative Professional Recognitions/Affiliations/Activities:

- Settlement Officer, Los Angeles Superior Court